Experience

Intern

Jan 2025 - Present

Next- Gen QuickHire (Pune - Maharashtra , India)

- I gained hands-on experience working on real-world projects, learning new frontend and backend libraries. I also developed a robust backend with well-structured database schemas.
- I built a Test Portal, a company product, where users can register, enroll in tests, receive feedback and results, and get recommendations for courses to pursue.
- Additionally, I improved my communication, time management, and teamwork skills while gaining experience with the Agile workflow.
